ATTRACTIONSEEKER PARTNERS WITH PARKWHIZ TO PROVIDE EXCLUSIVE PARKING OPTIONS TO USERS

The ParkWhiz partnership with Attractionseeker seamlessly integrates guaranteed parking into the fast growing hub for people to explore cities and discover local attractions and points of interest.

Chicago, IL, August 19, 2013

ParkWhiz, the largest and fastest growing online parking company in the U.S., today announced its partnership with Attractionseeker. By working together, ParkWhiz's system integrated into the Attractionseeker experience takes the hassle out of finding parking, leaving more time for enjoying local attractions and events in cities nationwide.

"We're driven to provide a first-class user experience," commented Nathan Poeppelman, Attractionseeker CTO. "For this reason, we selected ParkWhiz because of its leadership in the industry, great partnerships with companies like eBay's StubHub unit and its track record of working with popular attractions and points of interest that overlap with our focus."

More than 1 million people have used ParkWhiz's web and mobile apps, which allow users to book the perfect daily, monthly and event parking spot by comparing price, location and amenities. ParkWhiz can now take care of your parking needs wherever you go. The company works with over 2,000 parking locations nationwide and gives customers access to the world's largest online parking inventory with over 3 million parking spaces.

"We're thrilled to offer a complete solution for Attractionseeker," said Dean Bravos, SVP of Sales and Partnerships of ParkWhiz. "Now people will be able to search for things to do on Attractionseeker and conveniently find and pre-pay for parking nearby their intended destination in a few easy steps, which, in turn, will drive more revenue, as mobile commerce continues to accelerate, while generating savings for our audiences."

Attractionseeker's free app is available in the App Store for iOS powered devices and in the Play Store under the 'Travel & Local' category for Android smartphones and tablets. Additionally, it can be downloaded in the Amazon Appstore.
